Dear Prof. Scott,

The entire pupils and staff in conjunction with the management of the above school are immeasurably grateful to you for the drum kit cum set of percussion instruments nicknamed Jim Wark Half Century Band which you sent to us. It would be recalled that during your last visit to our school, no mention was made of it either in our welcome address or in your response to it. It was, indeed, a bolt out of the blue. Well done, Sir!

May we inform you that your gesture has taken no time to have positive impact on us. For instance, a day after we received them, the pupils in demonstration of their undisguised appreciation, took a march round the community, playing those drums anywhere they went. Guess what! It was a surprise to see that the sound of the drum could force an unprecedented, unexpected and unimaginable mammoth crowd to follow us wherever we went.

Suffice to say that since then, we have been the talk of the town. You have confirmed us as an international institution of learning. More and more children are coming to enroll in the school. Of particular interest was a case of a triplet below four years of age who joined us from a community that is about two kilometers away from Bane. According to their father, a minister of the Gospel, "you have no sign post but your name is more pronounced. We have heard a lot about this school and have also seen your products".

Besides, that quality of drum is not common here. Hence, having heard and seen what you have done, it is now a fashionable belief amongst parents that their wards are in the best school-one that has a lot going for then in this area. Sequel to that, there is a greater degree of cooperation between them and the school especially in respect of the purchase of recommended text-books for the pupils. Indeed, you have not only shot us to an enviable height but have also turned our life around.

We hereby attach Pictures and Statements of Account.

For that and for everything, it is our fervent prayer that the great Rewarder would embarrass you with His manifold blessings.

Yours sincerely,

Leelee Niwa Tanen.
